

PG-CET 2018

Syllabus for PG DHAM/ HSM

PG CET 2018 for PG DHAM/ HSM exam will consist of sections: Verbal Ability and Reading Comprehension, Quantitative Aptitude and Logical / Abstract Reasoning, Medical Related Basics.

Syllabus content is as follows:

- Verbal ability and reading comprehension: This section of the exam paper determines the grasp a candidate has on English language. The question paper will comprise of passage, and questions based on the passage. Through this section, a candidate's vocabulary, grammar, synonyms, antonyms, sentence completion, comprehension is tested. To answer the questions, the candidate must first understand the contents of the passage, and secondly, use correct phrases, words and expressions.
- Quantitative aptitude: This section of the paper assesses a candidate's ability to solve numerical calculations with speed and accuracy. To excel in this section, the candidate must have a good understanding of ratio and proportion, percentage, interpretation of tables, charts and graphs.
- Logical / abstract reasoning: This section determines a candidate's ability to think quickly and accurately. Candidates can expect questions on verbal reasoning or on diagrams and figures in this section.
- Medical Related Basics