

Syllabus for PG-CET in MMS (Water & Land Management)

As the eligibility to this course is multi disciplinary i.e. any graduate can register for the course. The syllabus for the online entrance for admission to MMS (Water & Land Management) is in the form of broad guidelines.

The questions from following core- area will appear in the test

1. General geographical informations of Maharashtra/India
2. Importance of water and land management.
3. General graduate aptitude /knowledge test
4. Comprehension capabilities
5. General science awareness (Questions from general science)
6. Agricultural science
7. Modern trends in agricultural management
8. Sustainable agriculture
9. Hydrology, Hydrological cycle, types and forms of precipitation.
10. Watershed management, Ground water management, Natural resources management.

Head
Dept of Water & Land Management,
Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada
University, Sub-Campus, Osmanabad